

837 W. 5th st., victim of Calumet river tragedy, recovered 400 feet below bridge. Body of man recovered Monday night positively identified as John L. Boyd, chauffeur, 2607 Indiana ave. Other two men in machine believed to have been John Buchanan, chauffeur, 1127 E. 55th st., and Chas. Rumick, employe of garage, Michigan ave., near 40th st.

Jacob Weinberg, 712 So. Paulina st., arrested. Bit Max Roth, 1484 W. 14th st., three times following quarrel over opening of window in factory where they worked.

Bulldog belonging to Mrs. John Ahlert, 2526 Linden place, ran into basement Darwin school, Catalpa court and Darwin terrace and bit Louise Kittelson, Bernice Templar and Theresa Starf. All under 12 years. Woman refused to let police have dog.

WEATHER REPORT.

Cooler.—Fair to night, followed by showers and thunderstorms, and cooler Thursday for Chicago and vicinity; brisk to high southwest winds to night, shifting to northeast Thursday.

* * * * *

* A burnt child shuns the fire. *

* This gives children a distinct *

* advantage over men and *

* moths. *

* * * * *

ALL OUT.

Pullman Porter—Git up, sah—diss iss as far as we go.

Passenger—But it's perfectly dark outside. Surely you are calling me too early.

Pullman Porter—Lawzee, boss, don't you know Pittsburgh when you see it?

OUR PRECISE ARTIST.

"High and Low German."